Description

A Nice Art Deco Silver-Plated Salver/Tray with a refined scalloped outline, a broad stepped border and a polished central field. The gently undulating edge catches the light beautifully and creates an elegant frame for whatever is displayed or served. It sits on four decorative feet, lifting it slightly from the surface in the manner of a traditional salver – circa 1925. * Use it as a serving piece or as a display base to elevate candles, bottles, or keepsakes.
