Description

A Lovely Antique Edwardian Silver Plated Spirit Kettle set comprising kettle, stand, and burner for table service. The kettle has a rounded body with a fluted lower band that gives a classical, architectural look. A tall swing handle with an ebony grip allows the kettle to be lifted securely when hot. The stand is raised on four tapered legs ending in small pad feet, giving an elegant, elevated profile. A circular gallery at the top of the stand supports the kettle neatly and keeps it stable in use. The burner sits beneath with a snuffer cap and a long side arm for handling, designed for controlled heating – circa 1905. * A table kettle set that captures the theatre of historical tea service in one polished ensemble. Measurements: Height (on stand): 15 1/2" (approx. 39.5cm) Width (spout to end): 9 1/2" (approx. 24cm) Depth: 6" (approx. 15cm) Total weight: 1600g In good condition – The silver plate presents with a bright overall sheen and the forms remain crisp and well defined. There is only light surface wear consistent with age.
