Description

A Very Handsome Antique Edwardian Sterling Silver Gilt Lined Card Box with a hinged lid and a slim, pocketable profile. The exterior is finished with crisp engine-turned striping that gives a clean, linear look. A circular cartouche to the front is engraved with a small figural motif, offering a distinctive personalised accent. The interior is gilt washed, providing a warm contrast to the cool tone of the silver. Hallmarked for Birmingham, 1909. * It is the sort of accessory that brings a period note to a desk, jacket pocket, or display cabinet. Measurements: Height: 1 3/4" (approx. 4.5cm) Width: 3 1/4" (approx. 8.5cm) Silver weight: 51g In good condition – The hinge is in full working order and the lid fit snugly. The case features a crisp, engine-turned pattern with no significant wear or loss to the engraving.
