Description

A handsome Dutch walnut display cabinet, beautifully crafted and in excellent antique condition. The upper section features a flared cornice and a canted astral-glazed cabinet with a prominent central door. The glass sides allow light to flood the interior, ensuring your displayed items are beautifully illuminated. perfect for displaying ceramics, glassware, or treasured decorative pieces. Below, a pair of solid panelled doors open to additional storage. Standing on a shaped plinth base and finished with traditional brass fittings, this is a fine example of Dutch craftsmanship. The warm walnut tones and gentle figuring give the piece a rich, inviting presence — a versatile and decorative addition to a kitchen, dining room, hallway, or sitting room.
