Description

This skilfully made diorama depicts a three-mast early 19th-century sailing ship at the harbour, with a raised landscape behind and cottages set into the hillside. Opposite, a small rocky outcrop features a lighthouse. This rare example has been beautifully hand built and painted within a spirit bottle. This is a complicated task to achieve particularly to this fine quality and detail. English circa 1930 Height 9cm x width 24cm x depth 7.5
