Description

George III King of Great Britain, France and Ireland. Purcell after Jeremiah Meyer A fine reverse glass print presented in a period Georgian frame. Circa 1760 This handsome profile of the recently crowned King George III, facing to the left and wearing the insignia of the Garter is one of the most enduring images of his reign. This image was distributed across Great Britain introducing the new King to his subjects. Little did we what a long and prosperous reign he would enjoy when this royal portrait was produced. This Georgian reverse glass print is on display at our London antique shop on Kensington Church Street. We ship worldwide.
