Description

A handsome and generously proportioned oak partners writing table desk, dating to circa 1910. Constructed in solid oak throughout, this impressive desk features a new hand-dyed green leather writing surface with a finely tooled edge, beautifully complementing the oak tones. The desk is finished on both sides, making it ideal for use as a partners desk, with three drawers to each side fitted with the original brass swan-neck handles and working locks. Further details include attractive panelled ends, elegant fluted legs and shaped spade feet. A practical and decorative antique desk of excellent size and quality.
