Description

Reproduction Georgian style! A lovely solid mahogany bachelors' chest with a pullout brushing slide over three drawers fitted with swan neck handles. These Batchelor chests double as great desks when space is limited, because of the pull-out slide for supporting a laptop. The chest is decorated with elegantly carved side supports and carved bracket feet & is solid mahogany throughout. This is a real statement piece that will really elevate the room that it is placed in. Please see our other listings for more antique, retro and vintage furniture.
