Description

A fine quality pair of Victorian bow fronted corner display cabinets. The well figured tops with ormolu front edges above an inlaid frieze, single glazed doors which open to reveal three shelves which retain their (probably original) velvet linings. The cabinets are adorned by ormolu mounts and stand on shaped plinths. A good looking pair of cabinets in excellent condition throughout, can be used as a pair or even in separate rooms, the depth is measured from the corner out sideways so they only take up 55cm of space. English Circa 1870.
