Description

On first viewing of this fabulous Art Deco figure one can't not be taken back by the sheer size, very unusual and impressive, standing 55 cm high and 40 cm in length he's the perfect size to make a focal point in a room. Although the subject matter is related to tennis, you don't have to be a sports fan to appreciate this figure the detailing, the colouring, pure craftsmanship is there to enjoy. Dressed in the fashion of the day with pleated trousers, open shirt with large lapels, down to the crimped hair offers an authentic look into this era. He's unsigned but originates from France. From any angle he gracefully poses a movement. His condition is excellent with minimal signs of age. He stands on a shaped Belgian Marble plinth and is made from spelter and cold painted. This figure is very rare so we are delighted to have found this gem and know the next owner will be nothing less than delighted. FREE UK DELIVERY
