Description

Rare little limed oak sideboard by Heal's of London c.1920. Useful small size, just 48" wide. With three drawers of graduated height flanked by cupboards, each with a single shelf inside (internal depth 18"). Note the dividers and green baize lining to the top drawer and how the shallower shelf inside the right hand cupboard allows bottles to stand in front. Simple machine age design with limed oak veneers and dark stained handles. Raised on unusual solid ends extending to the floor and with crisp moulded detail to the edges. Original Heal's Tottenham Court Road label to the top drawer front. Excellent condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Width: 48" (122 cm) Height: 35.5" (90 cm) Depth: 19" (48.5 cm)

Internal Ref: 38457
