Description

Mid C19th brass-bound mahogany officer's military campaign 2-part chest of drawers. Superior quality 2-section brass-bound mahogany chest fitted with a drawer configuration of varying depths and widths, offering practical storage options., originally probably designed to store personal items, uniforms, charts and hats needed on a military campaign tour. Having protective brass corners, brass strapping and recessed brass handles. Fitted with brass escutcheons and brass locks stamped by 'Hobbs & Co, London', supplied with a steel key operating the majority of the drawers. The ash-lined drawers having quarter 'dust-bead' strips to the interiors and scribed-edge 'cock-beading' to the fronts. Two of the short drawers of the top section fitted with bespoke storage divisions to the interiors. Raised on the original turned feet. Constructed in the traditional manner in two sections for ease of movement and transportation. In excellent original condition with only minor marks and dents commensurate with age, use and purpose. The chest has achieved a pleasing, rich patina and colour to the well-selected figured mahogany. The brass fittings retaining their orig...
