Description

Elegant Art Deco Compactum wardrobe, circa 1930, beautifully veneered in highly figured burl walnut with rich walnut banding and a stepped cornice top. A superb example of period craftsmanship, offering both striking appearance and practical storage. The interior is fitted with the original hanging rail, hangers, shelving, drawers and compartments, making it an exceptionally functional piece. With working lock and key, the wardrobe is presented in good condition with a polished finish throughout. Designed to break down into four main sections for easier transport and installation. A stylish and increasingly sought-after Art Deco interior piece, ideal for both modern and traditional settings.
