Description

A set of six 19th century oak dining Chairs, comprising four matched chairs from one set together with a further pair of closely related form and design. The chairs are constructed in solid oak and display attractive variation in colour and figuring across the set, consistent with their country-made origins. Each chair features a shaped top rail above a pierced splat, incorporating stylised fleur-de-lys inspired detail. The chairs retain simple boarded seats and square chamfered legs united by stretchers below, giving the set a practical and robust farmhouse character. A well matched and visually cohesive set with strong vernacular appeal and excellent surface colour throughout. Item Reference: M-6909 . Dimensions: Height – 96cm / Width – 51cm / Depth – 44.5cm / Seat Height - 45cm (average size, minor variations between chairs). . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition with signs of age and use throughout. Surface wear, marks, knocks, scratches, and age-related imperfections present across the set. Variations in colour, wear, and construction between the chairs consistent with a harlequin set. Minor historic repairs and old strengthening repairs may be present. One ...
