Description

A fine example of a sterling silver ring or trinket box. It is a stylish and good quality piece, standing on four small feet with a hinged lid that opens to reveal a velvet lined interior. It is clearly hallmarked for Birmingham, 1910 and the maker Henry Matthews. It is in good condition for its age and displays beautifully. There are no major damages and the interior is clean and tidy. There are some faint surface marks and minor signs of age and use and some small dinks but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
