Description

A good example of a square glass inkwell with a silver collar and hinged top. It is a good quality piece with a hobnail cut base and faceted edges. It is hallmarked for Birmingham, 1904 and the makers Levi & Salaman. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. There are some minor signs of age and use, some faint surface marks, and minor dinks but no major damages to the glass or anything detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
