

SA1214894

A Neoclassical terracotta semi-nude bust of "Jeune Femme Florentine"

Price

GBP 3,250

| USD $4,389 | EUR 3,801

Item Reference: SA1214894

Date of manufacture: 1870

Dimensions

Height = 65 cm (25.6")

Description

The near full size 'Young Florentine Woman' Inscribed "Faure de Broussé 1776", with a further written inscription to the base. Inscribed to the rear of the bust "O.F". 65cm High. Condition: Wonderful patination with some age-related marks, small chips and one professional repair to a lock of hair. Provenance: Estate of Peter Kaus, the ex-owner of the "Rossi Bianco Collection" in Aschaffenburg, Germany. A similar plaster cast bust "Dama con fiori sul capo, da Faure de Broussé " can be found in the Villa Nicesola-Conforti Museum in Verona. Vincent Désiré Faure De Broussé (1843-1908), was a French sculptor, born in Paris. A student of Jules Salmson, he participated from 1876 to 1883 in the Paris Salon. The artist is renowned for his figurative sculptures influenced by the Florentine Renaissance. His sculptures often featured figures in period costumes.

Internal Ref: 26766

Seller Details

Kendall House Antiques Ltd.

Kendall House High Street Chipping Campden Gloucestershire GL55
6AG 7 United Kingdom

Tel: 07880 602715

International Tel: +44 7880 602715

