Description

A matching pair of late Edwardian Gothic Revival oak church chairs, the architectural backrests with out-swept scrolled ears and lancet arches framing a central column pierced with chamfered trefoils, all set over solid quarter-sawn oak seats, pierced trefoil aprons and raised on square legs. Retaining their original 1911 engraved brass presentation plaque, the chairs present a crisp, architectural silhouette, highly practical as a flanking pair in an entrance hall or on a landing. Presented in very good antique condition with light surface wear consistent with age and use. Their construction reflects the honest, functional simplicity of the contemporary Arts & Crafts movement. Both chairs are structurally sound, clean and ready to place. English, circa 1911. H: 88.5 W: 46 D: 48 cm Seat height: 44 cm
