Description

A folding mahogany campaign table. Folding tables such as these were designed to be stowed away when not in use and for ease of transit. With circular folding top and flush inset cast brass hinges and thumb-moulded edge, over an X-frame folding stand with shapely swept leg and chamfered stretchers. A wooden catch on the underside locks the top in the open position. English, circa 1860-1890. H: 30.5" (77.5cm), W: 21" (53.5cm).
