Description

A Georgian George III mahogany bow-front chest on chest, fitted with eight drawers arranged with a two-over-three drawer configuration to the upper section, set above three long drawers to the lower section. This traditional chest-on-chest form provides substantial storage, offering greater capacity than a standard single chest. The chest stands on splayed feet and retains brass handles to all drawers. The upper section is finished with a Gothic arched cornice, decorated with repeating lancet arches, adding an architectural detail that is less commonly seen on chests of this type. The bow-front form gives the piece an elegant profile and is a less common variation, adding visual interest while remaining practical. A well-proportioned and functional piece, suitable for use in a bedroom, dressing room, or as statement storage within a larger interior.
