Description

K0654 Very elegant English William IV occasional table, having a single piece of timber top in figured mahogany above a shallow frieze enclosing an oak lined cockbeaded drawer with a turned knob. All raised on slender turned, ringed and tapered legs. This antique table has been sympathetically restored in the past. It retains its original French polish which has been cleaned, revived and waxed, soft patina and antique character. The table is showing minor signs of usage adding to its charm and authenticity. The table is in good condition ready to place at home. Polished to each side enabling free standing. C1840 H28 ¼" W21.5" D15 ¾" H71cm W54.5cm D40cm
