Description

A superb Antique 20th Century good quality sideboard in mahogany, very well made and of the finest quality. Exceptionally elegant and beautifully proportioned, the piece features three drawers to the upper section, arranged as two smaller drawers to either side with one larger central drawer, all fitted with their original decorative brass handles and fittings. Below are three cupboards comprising two single-door cupboards to either side and a double-door cupboard to the centre, each enclosing a useful interior shelf, providing excellent storage throughout. The sideboard stands on refined tapered legs with spade feet, adding to its graceful appearance. The mahogany displays breathtaking figuring, stunning grain, and rich colour throughout, further enhanced by delicate satinwood stringing inlay, showcasing the exceptional craftsmanship and attention to detail. Presented in good condition, this is a highly desirable and impressive example with timeless appeal and outstanding decorative presence. A truly beautiful sideboard, perfect addition to any home.
