Description

Verity Stainless Steel Rectangular Watch – Rare 1950s Vintage Gentleman's Wristwatch A highly attractive and increasingly rare 1950s Verity stainless steel rectangular wristwatch, presented in superb original condition. This elegant vintage gentleman's watch perfectly captures the understated sophistication of mid-century design, while offering versatile wearability for both men and women. Featuring a clean and highly legible dial with centre sweep seconds, luminous dot hour markers, and prominent 3, 6, 9, and 12 quarter numerals, the watch delivers classic vintage styling with excellent wrist presence. The rectangular stainless steel case remains exceptionally well preserved, showing very little wear and evidence of careful ownership throughout its life. Measuring 31mm wide excluding the crown and 41mm lug-to-lug, this is an ideal size for modern wear, sitting comfortably on the wrist either as a standalone piece or paired alongside other watches. A seldom-seen and very collectible vintage Verity model, offered in full working order and retaining outstanding originality.
