Description

This 20th-century small side table in burr walnut is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and elegant traditional design throughout. Raised on a graceful tripod base, the table has a refined and well-balanced appearance that makes it both decorative and practical. The burr walnut displays stunning figuring, rich grain, and warm colour throughout, giving the piece exceptional character and visual appeal. The natural patterns within the walnut beautifully highlight the craftsmanship and quality of the table. Presented in good condition, this highly desirable example would make a perfect addition to any home, ideal for use as a lamp table, occasional table, or decorative side table within both traditional and contemporary interiors.
