Description

This antique 20th-century small chest of drawers in oak is a beautifully crafted piece of fine quality, showcasing traditional workmanship and timeless design throughout. Compact yet highly practical, the chest features four drawers arranged as two smaller drawers over two larger drawers, offering useful storage while maintaining elegant proportions. All of the drawers having decorative brass handles and fittings, adding character and authenticity to the piece. Raised on classic bracket feet, the chest has a refined and well-balanced appearance suited to both traditional and contemporary interiors alike. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing the beauty and charm of the piece. Presented in great condition with solid construction throughout, this highly desirable small chest of drawers would make a perfect addition to any bedroom, hallway, study, or living space.
