Description

This antique 19th-century Victorian rustic writing table in pine is a charming and characterful piece, well made and of good quality throughout. Featuring a spacious top and generous proportions, the table is both practical and full of traditional rustic appeal. The piece has two drawers to the front fitted with cup handles, providing useful storage while complementing the rustic styling of the table. The pine displays gorgeous natural grain and warm colour throughout, adding plenty of charm and authenticity to the piece. With its desirable rustic appearance and nicely aged character, this writing table would suit a variety of interiors, from country homes to farmhouse and industrial-style settings. Presented in good overall condition, the table does have some antique woodworm which has been professionally treated. A very desirable and practical example, this Victorian writing table would make a perfect addition to any home, study, kitchen, or workspace.
