Description

This antique 20th-century small chest of drawers in mahogany is a beautifully proportioned piece, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and traditional design throughout. Compact yet practical, the chest features five drawers in total, all retaining their original decorative brass handles, adding charm and authenticity to the piece. The mahogany displays gorgeous grain and attractive figuring throughout, complemented by a rich, warm colour that enhances its timeless appeal. Raised on classic bracket feet, the chest has an elegant shape and balanced proportions, making it particularly desirable for smaller spaces where both style and functionality are important. Presented in good condition, this very attractive and well-made example would make a perfect addition to any bedroom, hallway, living room, or study, offering useful storage combined with classic antique character.
