Description

A rare and elegant George III mahogany bookcase, dating from the late 18th century, richly decorated with refined marquetry inlay throughout. The upper section features a pair of astragal glazed doors beneath a striking broken arch pediment with pierced fretwork, dentil cornice, and blind fret detailing, opening to an interior with three height-adjustable shelves and retaining a working lock and key. The serpentine-fronted lower section is fitted with three finely dovetailed drawers retaining brass swan-neck handles and further inlaid decoration. Raised on bracket feet, this impressive Georgian bookcase separates into three sections for ease of transport and is presented in good condition throughout.
