Description

STUNNING HUGE EXAMPLE / REMINDS ME OF BRADGATE PARK IN LEICESTER LABEL VERSO ROYAL ACADEMY LABEL EXHIBITED AT THE ROYAL ACADEMY IN 1896 PICTURE FRAMERS LABEL ROSS & PHILLIPS 50/52 Church Street Liverpool & London Chambers Devon's two spectacular National Parks offer completely different experiences. Dartmoor is vast, wild, and rugged, famous for its granite tors, deep river valleys, and free-roaming ponies. Exmoor is smaller and greener, featuring rolling hills, enchanted woodlands, and a dramatic coastline along the Bristol A quality work of art painted in Pastel & Gouache by sought after Royal Academy acclaimed artist J.Knight, depicting a moorland landscape scene with deer. This fine example is in excellent condition and is protected under the original glass. SPECIAL NOTE This fine painting finished in Pastel & Gouache captures perfectly the steamy mist and dewey dampness of the moors, with the green grassy colours changing intensity in the various applications of sunlight and daylight, a true realistic landscape having depth and realism to stir most imaginations. All very well scaled and just like looking through a real framed window bringing the outside...
