Description

This antique 20th-century pair of mahogany bedside cabinets is beautifully crafted and of excellent quality throughout, showcasing elegant traditional styling and fine attention to detail. Each cabinet features two drawers in total, retaining all of their original handles and fittings, providing both practicality and timeless character. A particularly attractive feature is the stunning carved frieze to the upper section, complemented by turned legs with decorative reeded detailing, highlighting the quality craftsmanship and refined design of the pieces. The mahogany displays gorgeous grain, rich figuring, and beautiful warm colour throughout, adding depth and charm to the pair. Presented in good condition, these highly desirable bedside cabinets would make a perfect addition to any bedroom or interior, combining practicality with classic antique appeal.
