Description

A superb antique Victorian solid walnut library table / desk. This was made in England, it dates from around the 1860-1880 period. It is of amazing quality and is a very large and impressive size. The baluster legs are beautifully turned with wonderful brass casters. The three drawers have nice brass handles and the back is nicely finished, so this can be used as a free standing item. The inset leather top is hand coloured with gold tooled edges. We have recently had this re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age.
