Description

This antique 20th-century carved oak display cabinet is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing excellent quality and traditional workmanship throughout. The upper section features glazed doors opening to reveal two internal shelves, ideal for displaying decorative items, glassware, or collectibles, while the blind two-door cupboard to the base provides useful concealed storage. Beautifully carved with a high level of attention to detail, the cabinet retains all of its original handles and fittings and comes complete with a key, adding authenticity and charm to the piece. The oak displays gorgeous natural grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing its timeless character and decorative appeal. Very well made and presented in good condition, this attractive cabinet has desirable proportions that make it suitable for a variety of interiors. A perfect addition to any home, combining practicality with classic antique style.
