Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A charming English antique hanging or countertop corner cabinet in stripped pine, dating from the 19th century. The cabinet features an attractive astragal glazed door with geometric glazing bars and retains its original brass hardware. The warm stripped pine exterior has developed a lovely mellow patina, while the interior retains its original dark green painted finish, giving the piece wonderful character and authenticity. Internally, the cupboard contains corner shelves providing useful display or storage space for ceramics, glassware or books. The proportions are particularly pleasing, with the moulded cornice and elegant glazed door giving the cabinet strong decorative appeal. A versatile piece equally suited to a kitchen, pantry, bathroom, hallway or sitting room interior. Dimensions: Height: 108 cm Width: 75 cm Depth: 42 cm
