Description

An attractive Edwardian mahogany dressing table with chest of drawers. The upper section features a large central oval swing mirror flanked by two small jewellery or trinket drawers, set either side of an open shelf with a shaped gallery back. The base consists of two short over two long drawers, all fitted with brass handles. The piece stands on elegant tapering square legs with original castors below. The rich mahogany grain and simple Edwardian lines give the piece a refined and timeless appearance. A well-proportioned and practical example, ideal for use as a dressing table or bedroom chest. Item Reference: M-6665 . Dimensions: Height - 160cm / Width - 107cm / Depth - 47.5cm / Surface Height - 78.5cm . CONDITION REPORT In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age and use.
