Description

This antique 20th-century Edwardian chest of drawers in oak is a beautifully crafted piece, showcasing fine quality workmanship and classic period styling throughout. Compact yet highly practical, the chest features four drawers ascending in size, all retaining their original brass handles, adding authenticity and charm to the piece. Raised on elegant turned legs, the chest has a graceful and well-balanced appearance, while the oak displays gorgeous natural grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing its timeless character and appeal. Its desirable smaller proportions make it ideal for bedrooms, hallways, studies, or other spaces where both storage and style are important. Presented in good condition, this attractive Edwardian example would make a perfect addition to any home, combining practicality with traditional antique charm.
