Description

Antique French marble mantel clock with beautiful decorative detailing and classic French styling. A striking display piece featuring an elegant black marble case with brass ormolu mounts and a traditional Roman numeral dial. This is an original antique item with age-related wear and marks consistent with its age and use. Condition is exactly as shown in the photographs. Please note that I am unsure if the clock is in working order as it is missing the pendulum and winding key, therefore it is being sold strictly as seen and priced accordingly. A fantastic decorative antique for restoration, display, or interior styling. Height 47cm Width 48cm Depth 17cm Due to the weight and delicate nature of the clock, collection is highly recommended. I would prefer not to post, although delivery may be possible at additional cost. Any questions, please feel free to ask — I'm happy to help.
