Description

A very pretty pair of neoclassical style Victorian silver table salts of serpentine shape with beaded rims and set on four lion paw feet. The walls are bright cut engraved with stylised foliate swags and garlands, with pierced motifs to three walls and triangular friezes along the inside of the upper and lower rims. The fourth side is engraved with a vacant cartouche. Fitted with shaped blue glass liners with star cut bases. Hallmarked for London 1896 and 1897, maker Thomas Bradbury and Sons. They measure 8.6cm (3 3/8") wide by 6.1cm (2 3/8") deep and 5.6cm (2 1/4") high. They weigh in total 275g (silver weight 133g / 4.3 oz). In excellent condition with no damage, dents, losses or repairs and the liners are also excellent with no chips. Very minor handling wear, the engraved detail and hallmarks are all crisp.
