Description

You are viewing a quirky and collectable antique aneroid barometer in the shape of a tennis racquet. This was originally on the wall of a tennis club in Richmond, SW London where it was salvaged from. We date it to circa 1930 and it's a quirky collectors piece. Barometer - an instrument measuring atmospheric pressure, used especially in forecasting the weather and determining altitude. Some of our items are in storage so please check ahead of a viewing to see if it is on our shop floor. Offered in great shape ready for home use right away. We ship to every corner of the planet - please get in touch for a shipping quote. Dimensions in inches (CM): Width x Depth x Height 8 (20) x 2 (5) x 24 (60).
