Description

Vintage Triple Strand Cultured Pearl Bracelet with Diamond Floral Clasp in 14ct Gold – Circa 1950s A particularly elegant vintage triple-strand cultured pearl bracelet, beautifully crafted and dating from the 1950s. Recently professionally restrung and individually hand knotted in May 2026, it is presented in excellent condition and ready to wear. The bracelet is formed from three rows of beautifully matched cultured pearls displaying a soft ivory-white body colour with delicate pink overtones and a rich, reflective lustre. The pearls are smooth, evenly coloured and exceptionally well matched, creating a luxurious and sophisticated appearance on the wrist. The centrepiece is a striking floral clasp crafted in 14ct white gold. Three luminous pearls form the flower head, highlighted by a central brilliant-cut diamond and surrounded by twelve elegant diamond-set petals. The design is both feminine and timeless, providing a beautiful focal point when worn. Further refinement is provided by three decorative spacer bars positioned around the bracelet, each accented with two brilliant-cut diamonds, adding subtle flashes of light between the strands. Elegant, versatile and w...
