Description

A superb pair of Art Deco oak bookends made by Gordon Russell at his workshop at Broadway in the Cotswolds. They are stamped on the underside and date to around the 1930's. In completely original condition with a lovely deep grain configuration and a rich waxed patina. Gordon Russell (1892 - 1980) was an English designer and craftsman who was a leading light in the Cotswold school of furniture and artefacts. His early work is highly sought after and pieces such as these are very collectible. They measure 5 1/2 inches high, 3 1/2 inches deep and 3 1/2 inches wide. A fantastic present for a loved one or a book collector. Postage to the UK is included in the price. If you require a price to ship overseas.....please contact me for a quote.
