Description

A Nice Antique Edwardian Silver Plated Tea Caddy with an oval profile and a hinged lid, giving it the character of a small table caddy or covered sweet box. The exterior is finely engraved with delicate floral swags and ribboned garlands, framed by a neat beaded border. The accompanying spoon is shaped as a scallop shell with a beaded handle edge, making it well suited for tea, sweets, or small condiments – circa 1905. * It also makes a useful dressing table box for keeping small items tidy while remaining decorative. Measurements: Height: 3" (approx. 7.5cm) Width: 4" (approx. 10cm) Depth: 3" (approx. 7.4cm) Total weight: 255g In good condition – The silver plated surfaces show only light surface wear consistent with age and careful use.
