Description

A Lovely Antique Edwardian Silver Plated Ice Bucket modelled in a barrel form, with engraved staves and banding to mimic traditional cooperage. The bucket is fitted with two angular side handles, giving a balanced and practical grip when lifting. A pair of ice tongs are included, finished with distinctive claw terminals for secure handling of cubes – circa 1905. * An excellent piece for anyone who enjoys early cocktail culture styling and practical, well-made entertaining ware. Measurements: Height: 6 1/4" (approx. 16cm) Diameter: 5" (approx. 12.5cm) Total weight: 509g In good condition – The silver plated surfaces show only light surface wear consistent with age.
