Description

A beautifully crafted Victorian round mahogany drum table. This piece features a classic circular top adorned with a new hand-dyed green leather surface, tooled around the edges to highlight its rich character and traditional design. The leather surface brings a fresh yet authentic touch, complementing the warm tones of the mahogany. The table is fitted with eight equally spaced drawers around the apron—four functional drawers providing convenient storage and four matching dummy drawers for visual balance, all seamlessly integrated and adorned with turned handles. The mahogany exhibits a deep, lustrous patina and is in excellent condition. Supported by a central turned column leading to a tripod base with casters. This piece would make a distinguished addition to a study, library, or drawing room, combining both function and refined decorative appeal. Top diameter 100cm (39.75") H 72cm (28.5") Floor to underside of table H 58.5cm (23")
