Description

Exceptional antique French mahogany armoire wardrobe dating from the late 19th century, beautifully crafted in the Louis XVI taste and richly decorated with gilt bronze ormolu mounts. This impressive French wardrobe features a large central bevelled mirror door flanked by finely panelled mahogany doors with striking chevron grain veneers and elegant bronze ornamentation throughout. The shaped serpentine cornice with decorative ribbon cresting adds further sophistication, while the interior offers practical hanging space together with fitted drawers to the base section. Raised on elegant tapered legs with bronze mounts, this antique French armoire combines outstanding craftsmanship with impressive decorative presence. A superb statement piece for a bedroom, dressing room, hallway, or luxury interior, ideal for collectors and interior designers seeking authentic French antique furniture with both beauty and functionality. An elegant 19th century French mahogany wardrobe of exceptional scale and quality. Height: 243cm Width: 180cm Depth: 49cm
