Description

A handsome 19th-century rosewood breakfront side cabinet, impeccably veneered in richly figured timber. It features four decorative faux-panelled doors and an upper shelf framed by a delicate fretwork gallery supported on scrolled brackets. The rosewood has a deep, lustrous colour with a beautifully matured patina. With its neat proportions and refined craftsmanship, it makes an ideal hall cabinet or compact bookcase, adding character and sophistication to any interior. Internal reference : SAI1254
