Description

A superb antique Welsh oak deuddarn cupboard of substantial proportions, dating from the 18th century. This impressive piece is constructed in two sections and displays the traditional form associated with Welsh vernacular furniture. The upper section is fitted with three panelled cupboard doors opening to reveal shelved interiors to each side, with an arrangement of small internal drawers to the centre cupboard. Below are three frieze drawers above a further bank of cupboards with fielded panel doors enclosing generous storage space. The cupboard is richly patinated throughout with a wonderfully warm oak colour and pleasing surface character developed over many years. Decorative moulded cornice detailing, shaped panel mouldings and turned corner drops add further charm and character to the piece. A highly practical and decorative item of antique Welsh furniture, ideal for both traditional and contemporary interiors alike. Item Reference: M-6910 DIMENSIONS: Height – 193cm / Width – 151.5cm / Depth – 54cm CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with signs of age and use commensurate with age.
