Description

Exceptional George III Bachelor's Chest (c.1780–1820) This outstanding George III bachelor's chest is a superb example of late 18th–early 19th-century craftsmanship, offering beautiful proportions and an elegant presence. The piece boasts a rich, warm colour with a wonderfully matured patina that only centuries of careful use can create. Standing on classic bracket feet, the chest features finely moulded, oak-lined drawers—all original, smooth-running, and showcasing the quality you expect from this period. Its compact form makes it especially desirable; at just two feet eight inches wide, it is an ideal size for both traditional and contemporary interiors where space and style matter. A rare bonus, the chest retains its original key, further affirming its authenticity. With all components untouched and in original condition, it remains a true collector's piece. Dimensions: Width: 85 cm Depth: 46 cm Height: 83 cm This is a charming and highly practical George III chest—perfect for the discerning collector or anyone looking to add genuine period character to their home.
