Description

K06 Antique pair of satinwood bedside cupboards, each having original white and green veined inset marble top above an oak lined and crossbanded drawer. One of the cabinets having two open sections with booked matched and crossbanded tiers supported on turned and fluted uprights. Other cabinet having crossbanded cabinet door with opens to reveal ceramic original inset, supported on turned and fluted uprights united by inlaid undertier. All fitted with original ring handles and decorated with ormolu, all standing on shaped feet. The pair is French polished to each side enabling free standing, it would make a good lamp stands. This antique pair of bedside cabinets has been sympathetically restored, solid, sturdy and woodworm free. These cabinets are in good condition, ready to place at home. Tall and elegant they would add style to any interior, traditional and modern. Unusually narrow proportion, rare. c1900 H32 1/4" W14.5" D14.5" H83cm W37cm D37cm
