Description

A charming Georgian Revival mahogany breakfront bookcase of diminutive proportions, offering elegant storage and display space. Standing on a plinth base, the lower section features finely bevelled panelled cupboard doors, while the upper section is fitted with four glazed doors opening to reveal a painted interior with adjustable shelving. The moulded cornice is adorned with classic dentil detailing, enhancing the bookcase's traditional Georgian character. Constructed in two sections for ease of transport and installation, this piece is both practical and decorative, making it ideal for smaller interiors where refined antique-style furniture is desired. Presented in Good Condition Size: Height 79" (201cm) Width 60" (152cm) Depth 17" (43cm)
