Description

This elegant Victorian antique partners writing table is crafted from beautiful flame mahogany and dates from Circa 1860. It features a striking inset green leather writing surface that has beautiful hand-tooled and gilded impressed decoration. It is raised on four turned fluted tulip tapering reeded legs that terminate in their original brass castors. It is a Partners desk and unusually has two frieze drawers on each side, fitted with brass drop handles, and perfectly sized for all the stationery you could possibly need, making this desk not just a symbol of refinement but a practical furnishing as well. It is finished on all sides so that it can stand freely in the middle of a room, making it extremely suitable for a large home or office. Condition: In excellent condition, having been beautifully cleaned, polished, waxed and releathered in our workshops. Please see photos for confirmation.
